To: _____

Subject: _____

Applicant Information:

Full Name: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Country of Origin: _____

Passport Number: _____

Current Address: _____

Purpose of Letter:

This letter is to formally request assistance and consideration regarding the immigration status and application process of the individual named above. The applicant seeks to comply fully with all relevant laws and regulations under United States immigration statutes and policies. We kindly ask the immigration authorities to review the attached documentation and to provide guidance on any further requirements for lawful entry, stay, or adjustment of status.

Background Information:

The applicant has maintained a record of compliance with all previous immigration directives, has no history of violations, and has submitted all required paperwork and fees as stipulated by United States immigration laws. The applicant intends to abide by all terms of any visa or immigration status granted and understands the importance of timely communication with the immigration services throughout the process.

Supporting Documents:

Included with this letter are certified copies of the applicant's passport, visa application forms, proof of financial support, letter of sponsorship, and any other documents required to support the legitimacy and eligibility of the applicant under applicable immigration statutes.

Request for Expedited Processing:

If possible, the applicant respectfully requests expedited processing of this application due to special circumstances including but not limited to employment opportunities, family reunification, or urgent humanitarian reasons. All documentation to support this request has been included.

Acknowledgments:

The applicant understands that any misrepresentation or failure to disclose pertinent information is grounds for denial of the application or revocation of immigration status. The applicant also acknowledges that final decisions rest with the United States immigration authorities and agrees to comply with all lawful directives issued.
