Re: Violation of Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA)

Dear Sir or Madam, This letter serves as a formal demand for immediate cessation of all unsolicited telephone calls, text messages, and other communications in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 ("TCPA"). It has come to my attention that your company or agents have placed calls or sent messages to my telephone numbers without prior express consent, in direct violation of the TCPA.

1. TCPA Violations

The TCPA prohibits any person or entity from making any call (including text messages) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice to any telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service without the prior express consent of the called party.

2. Your Violations

According to my records, your company or agents have contacted me using an automatic telephone dialing system or prerecorded messages without my prior express written consent. These calls and/or messages were unsolicited and have caused significant inconvenience and annoyance.

3. Demand for Immediate Cessation

I demand that you immediately cease all calls and messages to any of my telephone numbers that violate the TCPA. Failure to comply will leave me no choice but to pursue all available legal remedies, including filing a lawsuit under the TCPA.

4. Reservation of Rights

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver of any rights, claims, or remedies I may have under the TCPA or any other applicable law. I expressly reserve all such rights, claims, and remedies.

5. Contact

Please direct all future communications regarding this matter to the undersigned or my authorized legal representative. I expect your written confirmation within 10 business days that you have complied with the demands outlined in this letter.

Sincerely,

Sender's Signature
